5. FAMILY TREES

The following family trees each show the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number in angle brackets is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

In cases of adopted (or fostered) children, the parental connection is shown with a dashed line and a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown within the individual's box. This number references the tree in which that individual is shown with his or her natural parents.

Yes I got the attachments, and as long as I don't stay on too long they don't mind. I normally come in a half hour or so early to read my e-mails. Avondale is off of 235 about 2 miles from the state park. Yes, I work in Bellefontaine. The covered bridge is something that I've been through many times.

i thought i had told you when it happened. i know that i e-mailed pat and told her, to explain why i wouldn't be at the reunion. when i didn't go, the rest of the group decided not to go.

it's been real hard already and my ex isn't making it any better. he's fighting about who should pay for what. i just want us to go half and half on the cost of everything. he feels that because he let me borrow the money for the funeral, until my insurance came through, that i should pay 100% for the stone. i have paid him for part of what i owe, but am waiting for copies of the bills to pay him the rest.
it just makes me sick that it all boils down to money. it adds to the pain, that is all unbearable. i just want to get the stone ordered, so we can end our relationship forever.
he was at a party, where alcohol was served to minor. he and his friends left the party to get some hard stuff, because they only had beer at the party. the plan was to take the liquor back to the party, but the stopped at an abandoned train and drank the whole bottle. tami the driver came on to brandon and was very angry when he pushed her away. when they got back into the car and started driving, she was wasted and mad. she consumed most of the bottle. her etoh level was .302, the highest of all of them. she was driving too fast and brandon was yelling for her to slow down, but she wouldn't. tami and brandon were arguing up until the second they both died. they went over a set of railroad tracks and lost control as they went around a curve. they went off the road, but then managed to go straight on the grass for the length of a football field, until they hit a tree. i don't know why she couldn't stop in that time or get back on the road. there was no breaking at all. the first tree they hit was at the bottom of the tree, where part of the tree was protruding out. this sent them airborne, while the car twirled in the air. it hit a second tree and landed upside down. they said brandon's head hit the windshield, cracking his scull wide open, from front to back. everything but his brain stem was ejected out of his skull. he was killed instantly, he didn't suffer. the other two girls survived, but their account of the night doesn't match. i only told you the parts that they agree on. actually one of the girls (amilia) states that none of them drank at the party and tami was the only one who drank the bottle. the thing is, they all had etoh levels. hers was the lowest, brandon's was .195. i'm not sure what the other girls (angel) level was, but i know it was high. amilia also had a cracked skull and her brains were hanging out of her head. they gave her 2% chance to survive and she was lifeflighted from the scene. angel had a fx. pelvis and crushed legs. both are doing fine now. angel has a limp and she is in jail. amilia has no deficits at all that i can see. she can walk, talk and remembers everything, but i don't think she can tell the truth. her best friend is dating the guy who bought the beer and had the party. i think she's being pressured to cover for him. tami had no insurance on her car, but it was actually in her mother's name. we didn't allow brandon to get his driver's license, because of his lifestyle. i wish tami's mother had done the same.
i have a memorial web site for him. i have photos of the two trees on the virtual grave page, if you want to see them. there are also many photos of brandon. you can reach it by going to this site;

53. Reminiscences of my Father
Harold Marion Patterson Sr. was born 18 November 1921 in McGuffey Village, Hardin County, Ohio. At the age of 83, my Dad wrote down some of his earliest childhood memories shortly before he left us on 24 February 2005.
I pass them on to you as he wrote them, so that you could hear his voice in his own words.
I remember when I was 5 years old we lived on a farm called Allie Morre. The house had rats in it. Dad would nail tin can lids over the rat holes in the house to keep the rats out. Dad worked on the farm husking corn for Allie Moore. The house was very cold. My two older sisters Katherine and Dorothy went to school at a school on the Stambaugh Farm. I remember Mom making a poltus from pepper, salt, sage and fat pork to put on my chest for my cold. Mary Ellen went bare foot in the snow with her training potty to set on top of a stump and go to potty. She was two and one half years old.

I remember when I was 5 Â½ years old. We moved up to the marsh to a house on the Sheldon Farm. Kenneth was born. He cried a lot. I started to school and went to Stambaugh School. I remember the teacher was a man. He had a paddle with holes in it. I was real good!

I remember saving my cousin Rose Evelyn from drowning in a drainage ditch. We cooled our milk at the flowing well. Uncle Orsey, Moms brother, was married. His wife gave birth within four months. Uncle Orsey would sing this jingle (as I remember it)

Kemo Kimo Dearo Hi Hi and a Ho and A Hum Dum Periwinkle Tic Tac Pitty Pat Blue Eyed Pussy Cat Sing Song Kitty and Away we go

One of Eric Sheldon's coon dogs was loose when I went to take it home it pulled me down and dragged me all the way home through the muck. I remember Eric Sheldon's boys eating onions as though they were apples.

Uncle Charlie's girls came and lived in a tar paper shack behind our house. Wilma Alverth and Helen, they were wild. They would go out with boys and stay late and not be able to work. Uncle Charlie was angry at Dad and Mom. The girls had to go home.

I remember when I was 6 years old we moved to a house on the Elgin Wilcox farm. I do not remember the name of the school. We had a garden between the house and road. I remember riding home from school on the running board of a car and jumping off as it was coming to a stop. I went rolling into the ditch along side of the road.

I remember Dad was making moonshine for Uncle Albert Clark. I also remember Dad quit smoking cigarettes and never started again (he lived to be 92).

I remember the presidential campaign. Herbert Hoover was the Republican candidate. Hoover, Hoover he's our man put Al Smith in a tobacco can.

Katherine was going to McGuffey to school. Dad had to help Uncle Elmer Patterson out in his pool hall. Uncle Elmer would go off on a drinking binge and stay for days.

I remember when I was 7 years old we moved to a house on the marsh on the Ike Wilcox farm in Ohio. My brother Robert was born. I had the flu. I was very sick. I was out of my head. Mom told me I was trying to fight her.

Dad and Uncle Carl Clark was drinking in McGuffey Ohio, they were fighting with some Kentucky hillbillies. Uncle Carl was cut with a knife in the face. He could squirt water through a hole in his lower lip.

I remember Dad shooting killdeer across the road from our house. Also he would shoot red tail hawks from the straw stack in the field by our house.

I remember the day we got our smallpox vaccination. Mary Ellen went to school with us to get her vaccination. On the way home from school I took Mary with me to see a ditching machine at work. It was not a direct way home from school. When we got home way after the other kids Mom was waiting with a switch, so I just went up to her and turned around for her to whip me. It was not much of a whipping.

I remember them clipping the horse's manes. One horse jumped and was cut in the neck with the shears. They went up in the haymow and gathered cobwebs to stuff in the cut to stop the bleeding.

Ike Wilcox had coon dogs. He fed them cracklins. We kids would also eat them. We farmed onions that summer. We also worked in the onion field for Loy Bowers. I made one dollar a day (10 hrs).

I remember when I was 8 years old. We lived in Michigan on the marsh on the Driggs farm. I do not remember going to school from there that spring. We moved to a tar paper shack on the Randall Farm. We planted a late crop of onions, carrots and cabbage. The onions did not bole good. They pulled the onions that did not bole and peddled them for green onions. A grocer named Fay Van Ness held a mortgage on the crop for our grocery bill. When the crop was harvested Fay Van Ness took the crop and stored it in a crib (it was wasted).

I remember when we were looking at the Randall Farm. It was windy. Kenneth was four. The wind blew his hat off and was blowing it towards the ditch, he hollered! "Don't blow in the ditch you son of a $%$#!"
We laughed a lot about that.
I remember a creek across the road that we played in, we had to climb a farmer's fence to get the best swimming hole. He would chase us out. I remember I made a boat from a sheet of roofing tin. It would sink with two kids in it.
We moved to a house on the Riser Farm. I was 9 years old that fall. We went to school at the Lancaster school on US 112 between Clinton and Saline. We were very poor. The neighbors helped us out a lot with food, clothing and a sheep to eat. In the spring we helped clear some land towards Saline from where we lived. We farmed onions on that ground. We gathered tamarack from that ground to burn as firewood, cut it with a cross cut saw; me on one end and Dad on the other. My sister Katherine (17) started dating Roy Randall. My Uncle Jack Clark got out of prison at Milan Michigan and came to visit us. He was 17.
That fall we moved back to Ohio at Benton Ridge.
1931
I remember when I was 10 we lived near Benton Ridge. Went to school there. We farmed onions on the Aldrige farm we lived on. I rode and drove a large draft horse while Dad run the cultivator.
My sister Catherine was married.
I remember a lizard by the well pit. I hit it with a stick and broke its tail off. Later I saw it come back and get its tail.
My cousins and I got into Uncle Charlie's chewing tobacco. I got very sick.
Our baby brother Robert had pneumonia. He was real sick.
We had sores called infantigo. We had to take cod liver oil.
Dad tried to catch a skunk. Got stunk up real bad.
In 1931 there were a lot of pheasants. We ate pheasant eggs, they were easy to find. The pheasants were so numerous the farmer paid Dad to destroy their nests. He would stomp them with his boots. I remember riding on a wagon with Dad. He would spear pheasants with a pitch fort from the wagon. They were so thick they would pull newly planted corn and eat it.
I remember walking with Dad on a Railroad track to a store at a place called Moffit Station.
We moved to a farm near the Blanchard River. Its banks were covered with oil from the refineries in Findlay. I remember looking for arrow heads on that farm after a rain.
I remember we would gather and can dandelion greens, dock and mustard. There was a storm with large hail. Dad went outside and held a comforter up by the picture window to keep it from being broke. We went to work on the marsh that summer. We stayed in the same tar paper shack that Uncle Charlie's girls stayed in. I was 11 that fall.
I remember when I was 11 we moved to a tar paper shack on a farm called Johnny Sorgham, farmed onions. Dad worked for a farmer on the upland called the Stoddard Farm. He made one dollar a day.
That fall we started school at Nigger Island. I was in the 4th grade. I remember trapping for muskrats in a drainage ditch. When I would get one it would be worth as much as a day's wages for Dad.
We moved up the road to a house on the upland called Lodia Wooley Farm. We still went to Nigger Island School. We got relief from the NRA. Food, clothes and a cow. Dad went to work on the WPA.
We boys would play in the woods. Ethyl Fay was born there that fall. We went to the red school. We bought a crooked nose sow for one dollar. She had six pigs. Before our cow freshened we would get skim milk from the farmer that farmed the Lodia Wooley farm. That fall Dad made a shelter for our cow from fence wire stuffed with straw. There was a ridge ran through the farm called the devil's backbone.

We made maple syrup and sugar two different springs. Dad put up new fences on that farm. We cleared a swale for a garden. It grew a real good garden. The farmer got part of the produce. We would load a two wheel cart and take it to him.
Our dog was named Sport. He would kill ground hogs. I remember burying a ground hog skin in the ash pile. Later when I dug it out it was clean. The hair was off. I oiled it and it made good leather. I cut it into shoe laces for my boots.
Uncle Elmer's boys Chuck and Bob came to stay with us that summer.

"We met when I was 13 and Bob 16 at a roller rink. We skated 3 or 4 times a week and grew up together. We were engaged October 16, 1948 and married 1950. We lived on shepard Road in the tenant house of Mom andDad's, which bob remodeled, putting in plumbing, cupboards, insulation, drywall, and basement. In 1955 we moved to the home we built at 7032 Walnut Hill, Devil's Lake. Dad and Mom gave us the mony for the down payment on the lot. Bob worked for the Tecumseh Products starting in 1948. I worked at a small factory, the A&P grocery store in Tecumseh and for Dr. Benz as a receptionist. In 1967 I started to work at Bixby Hospital until 1981. Bob went on a medical leave from the plant in 1984, then retired in 1990.

Bob is a perfectionist, always doing everything to the best of his ability. He is able to do anything he sets his mind to, such as motors, small and automotive, electrical or whatever. He built our whole house, plumbing, electrical, planning it, everything. He loves to make models~designing and building them. If there is a part he needs for something and he doesn't have it, he makes it, often better than the original. This talent helped him to be a supervisor at the Tecumseh Products with the responsibilty of many men.They all respected his intelligance. If anything doesn't work or needs work, he fixes it.

When we first met, we roller skated a lot and went fishing with friends. We also went to model airpane meets and after we married, spent a lot of time water sking and snowmobiling. We used our pick-up camper to travel in, hunting mushrooms and camping. Being the type he is he had to find the most mushrooms, ski the best, and go the fastest on his snowmobile."~Joyce Patterson

James Patterson was Born in Licking Co., Ohio, Sept 13, 1824 and departed this life Sept 5, 1895. Thus the years of his life were 71, less eight days.
He removed with his parents to Logan Co., where he lived until the spring of 1870, when he came to Bloomer, where he lived until gathered to his fathers.
He was married Nov. 11, 1845. This union was blessed with ten children, seven of

He was converted in early manhood and united with the Methodis Church, to which he remained true and loyal for the close of his life.
Twelve years ago the 23rd of last May he was called to part with his devoted companion. Since that time this world was hardly seemed like home. And as he advanced upon life's journey, the attractions of that city which hath foundations, whose maker and builder is God, grew stronger and stronger until his soul longed to fly away to heavenly kindred to depart and be with Christ. With sad, but resigned hearts, we bid him adeau: for verily God took him.

121. The Reformed Presbyterian and covenanter, Volume 1 By John W. Sproull, Thomas Sproull, David Burt Willson, James McLeod Willson Page 377

Died, at Northwood, Logan Co., Ohio, Maroh 31st, 1872, Isaac Patterson, in the 67th year of his age.

Mr. Patterson was born near Belfast county, Down, Ireland,and emigrated with his parents to the United States at about the age of thirteen.

Their first place of residence was Mercer Co., Pa., where the family remained for two years, at the expiration of which period they removed to Logan Co., Ohio.

The deceased was among the early settlers of that part of the county where he resided; and acceded to the communion of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in 1833. At the organization of the Second Miami congregation he was chosen and ordained ruling elder, the duties of which office he continued to discharge till the time of his death.

Mr. Patterson was a man of calm, equable temper, and kindly disposition; and was distinguished for strong common sense, and for sterling honesty and integrity. Being among the earliest settlers,he was widely and favorably known in the community; and the confidence had in his judgment and integrity caused him to be resorted to not unfrequently in settling difficulties among neighbors.

As a Christian he was plain and unobtrusive, noted for the quiet and punctual discharge of the duties of the Christian life in the family, in the fellowship meeting, and in the assembly of the congregation.

In his public trust he had no selfish aims, but was conscientious and upright in the disch irge of official duty, seeking the ends of justice, the advancement of the divine glory, and the promotion of the church's go^d, and as he advanced in life was more and more manifesting a growing and deepening interest in all that pertained to the church's progress and prosperity.

His loss will be greatly felt and deplored, and his memory highly cherished not only by the family of which he was the loved and honored head, but also by the congregation of which he was an exemplary and valued member and officer.

To the solemn concluding scene, the valley of the shadow of death was, in his case, lighted from heaven; and inexpressibly consoling is the thought that his flesh is resting in hope, that he is sleeping in Jesus, awaiting! 'the voice of the archangel and the trump of God; for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, them also that sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Com. GDSS

Isaac Patterson was a conductor on the Underground Railroad in Northwood, Ohio.

Little is known of Patterson's life. Patterson helped found a Covenanter Church in Northwood in the early 1830s. Covenanters are an offshoot of the Presbyterian Church and primarily consist of people of Scottish heritage. Patterson earned his living through farming and was a conductor on the Underground Railroad in Northwood, which is located in Logan County, Ohio. He usually hid the fugitive slaves in his care in a cave on his property. The runaways descended a ladder into the cave. To gain admittance to the cave, people had to give the password, which was "Boston." The ladder is currently on display at the Logan County Museum. Patterson supposedly hid the slaves in the cave for as long as three weeks, waiting until slave catchers had given up the search for the fugitives. Perhaps as many as thirteen runaways stayed in the cave at one time. Other conductors would then transport the runaway slaves to other stops on the Underground Railroad. Many of these conductors were students at nearby Geneva College.

Isaac Patterson represents the growing tensions over slavery between Northerners and Southerners during the early nineteenth century. While many

Northern states had provisions outlawing slavery, runaway slaves did not necessarily gain their freedom upon arriving in a free state. Federal law permitted slaveowners to reclaim their runaway slaves. Some slaves managed to escape their owners on their own, while others sometimes received assistance from sympathetic Northerners, such as Patterson.

129. HISTORY OF JOHN HAMILTON SMITH -- Our ancestor John was born in Ross County, Ohio on March 29, 1833. John's father was Solomon Smith (originally Schmidt) who served as an officer of Jasper Township, in the capacity of a Constable in Fayette County, Ohio and also as a school teacher. Solomon was the first school teacher in that township. John's mother was Mary Magdalene Lichliter. Both John's mother and father were of German ancestry. John's father Solomon was a soldier in the War of 1812, and both of John's grandfathers were Revolutionary War soldiers.

John married his first wife, Louisa Rupert, on July 17, 1861 in Fayette County, Ohio. In 1863, married and with a young child, John and Louisa moved to Iowa from Ohio. John settled on a farm in Harrison County, Missouri near the Decatur County, Iowa border, 3 to 4 miles southwest of the town of Pleasanton, Iowa. The move was made around 1863 to get the children away from so much of the Civil War fighting in Ohio, and also to avoid conscription. According to the book, "The History of Harrison County, Missouri", 1888, he owned 300 acres of well cultivated and improved land and was classed among the enterprising and successful citizens. John was listed as a Republican in politics. The book actually has a short bio of him.

John was a farmer all his life. After Louisa died in 1887, he moved from the farm in Harrison County, Missouri to the nearby town of Pleasanton, Decatur County, Iowa, eventually selling the farm. He is thought to have lived near Princeton, Missouri for a short time, before he moved to Pleasanton, in Decatur County, Iowa. His son Charles ran a store in Pleasanton.

John married his second wife, Mary Ann, in 1898 while living in Pleasanton, Iowa. He died in Pleasanton, Iowa. Pleasanton now has only a population of about 50, but then had several hundred, a hotel and many stores and was a central trading center for farmers in the region. Mary Ann survived John. John is buried with Mary Ann in Hamilton Cemetery, near Pleasanton, Iowa. They both share a large tombstone. John is also listed on the tombstone with his first wife, Akron Cemetery, south of Cainsville (south of Pleasanton, Iowa), Harrison County, Missouri. but is buried with the second wife. John was always a bearded man, wearing a "halo beard", clean shaven above the lip.

John was a Baptist and went to the Riverview Baptist Church, just west of Pleasanton, Iowa/Missouri. He never learned to drive a car, always riding a horse.
